Jin Shin Jyutsu® Special Topic Class

June 26 - 28, 2020

with Sara Harper

(Fri-Sun) Talent, Oregon

Exploring the 12 Organ Flow: One Flow, 12 Aspects.

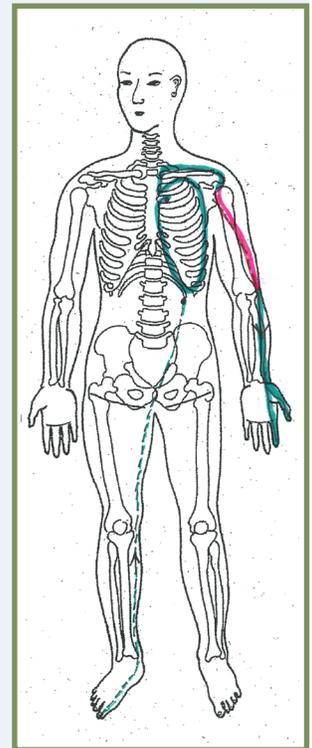

In this Special Topic Class, Sara will explore the 12 Organ Flow Patterns, beginning with the Lung Function Energy. We will be drawing the organ patterns, combined with hands on exploration to deepen our awareness and understanding of these energetic pathways.

“The TRINITY flows and the Diagonal (Mediator) circulation patterns, as well as the 12 “Individualized” Body Function energy descend and ascend throughout the body.

When the 12 “Individualized” Body Function energy is in balance with the Universal Harmonizing Energy, there is perfect harmony within and without the body. However, this perfect harmony may be interrupted by daily eating habits, working habits, heredity characteristics, environmental and weather conditions, mental and emotional anxieties, accidents causing bodily injuries, or by injection of poisonous matter into the body.

One or more of the 12 “Individualized” Body Function energy may increase or decrease, stagnate, deviate, reverse, or weave in and out and result in disharmony.

The seventeen kinds of 12 “Individualized” Body Function energy descend and ascend throughout the body to develop the physical form and the invisible consciousness, voice and energy. With the intermingling of the flesh and consciousness, a profound mysterious transformation occurs.” (Text II, pg 2-3)
